“WHEN I LOST MY JOB, THE ONLY CLARITY I HAD WAS THAT I DIDN’T WANT MY CHILDREN TO GO WITHOUT.

Ashamed and embarrassed, I turned to the Summit YMCA for financial assistance so that my son could attend summer camp. The staff at the Y were very welcoming, caring, and respectful—they made me feel like family and gave me the will to push forward. My son learned skills he wouldn’t have at home. He had fun, gained confidence as a swimmer and the Y offered my family hope when I felt there was none. With the biggest smile from my heart, I say thank you to the YMCA.”
